SUNDAY, APRIL 1
Easter service at 9:30

Come early for the coffee truck!

Easter's message will deal with how to stand firm in the storms of life. What is it that can anchor us in rough seas? Can give us hope in the midst of despair? Encouragement in the midst of hopeless situations?
